

This is the homework grid for our new topic: Mountains High

Key Skills	Mental Maths – practise the quick recall of number bonds <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Bonds to 20 ● Bonds to 50 ● Bonds to 100 ● Bonds to 1000 	Writing Collect examples of settings from imaginary worlds by authors such as: C.S Lewis, L. Frank Baum and Lewis Carroll. Draw them and produce a bank of descriptive words.	Writing Write diary entry from someone who is climbing Mount Everest. Think about the kit you will need to carry. How cold is it going to be? Which animals will you see?	Geography and Maths Make a Top Trumps game about Mountains to play in class. You could include: Height of the summit: annual rainfall: Highest wind speed: Collect a template from your teacher.
	My Maths Homework To be set weekly. Please let me know if you're having difficulty accessing it.	Literacy Create an exciting PowerPoint on mountains in the solar system. 	Word work Collect as many adjectives as you can from the books you are reading. How many adverbs can you list?	Art Collect photos from magazines, Google images and newspapers of hills and mountains. Make a scrapbook of images we can use when we start our art project,
Topic	Geography Research information from books and on the internet about the seven hills in Sheffield. Write a fact file about each hill. 	Non-fiction Go to the library and research our topic on Mountains. Write a quiz to share with the class. You could present it as a poster or a power point.	Athletics How many squats/star jumps/knee high kicks can you do in a minute? Record how many each time. Arms out straight to your side. How many small circles can you make with your arms? Slowly get bigger and bigger. Record each time and show me your progress 😊	Reading Read every day and see if you can answer the Guided Reading Questions. Handwriting Chose a favourite poem and write it out in your neatest, joined script.

