

This is the homework grid for our new topic: Rivers Deep – Mountains High

Key Skills	Mental Maths – the quick recall of multiplication and division facts Go on purple mash or TT rock stars to play times table games.	Reading Read every day and write a book review of your favourite stories.	Writing Create a fact-file on your favourite river animal. Write a story about a river animal – you must include fronted adverbials.	Science Research the water cycle and create a labelled diagram.
	Make a poster of tricky facts from the times/division tables – keep learning them!	Reading Reviews Fill in your reading diary after you have read a book. Come to me to sign it when you have read 5 or more books and you are entitled to a lucky dip prize.	Collect as many adjectives as you can. How many adverbs can you list? Create an imaginary world and make a character that lives there.	Art Draw a labelled diagram of your favourite river animal. How detailed can you make it? Water colour painting of a river scene.
	Geography Create a 3D model of a river.	Non-fiction Go to the library and research river wildlife.	Keeping Fit How many skips can you do in 2 minutes? How many star jumps can you do in 1 minute?	Visit local rivers Can you spot the different features? Tributary? Source? Meander?

River Deep-Mountain High

Homework

Year Group Year 4

Half term: Spring 2

Together we are Porter Croft