Dear parents/ carers

Year four have been offered an exciting opportunity to attend the Children's Book Show at the Crucible theatre.

The Children's Bookshow is a charity which brings some of the best children's authors from the UK and abroad to local theatre venues and gives teachers and school children the opportunity to hear world-class artists talk about their work. This particular performance will involve a talk including live drawings and stories from award-winning author Satoshi Kitamura.

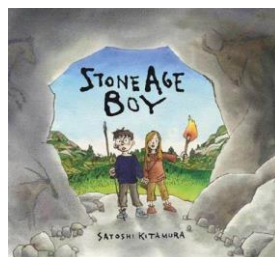

This event will take place on Monday 6th November at 11am. We will be walking both to and from the theatre so can you please ensure your child has a coat and sensible footwear on this day. Your child will also need to bring a packed lunch with them; we will be providing packed lunches to those children who have their meals provided for by school.

We will be returning before the end of the school day where the children will also get the opportunity to meet the author as part of a special workshop in class.

This is a really exciting opportunity for the children to continue inspire and instill their love of reading. The cost for the tickets is £7 and the children will also be given their own copy of 'Stone Age Boy' to keep.

Please sign the permission slip and return along with the payment for the tickets through Parent Pay. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Thank you for your continued support,

Mrs Hannah Ray
