Roles and responsibilities

The governing board

The governing board is responsible for monitoring this behaviour policy's effectiveness and holding the headteacher to account for its implementation.

The headteacher

The headteacher is responsible for:

- Reviewing and approving this behaviour policy
- Ensuring that the school environment encourages positive behaviour
- Ensuring that staff deal effectively with poor behaviour
- Monitoring how staff implement this policy to ensure rewards and sanctions are applied consistently to all groups of pupils
- Ensuring that all staff understand the behavioural expectations and the importance of maintaining them
- Providing new staff with a clear induction into the school's behavioural culture to ensure they understand its rules and routines, and how best to support all pupils to participate fully
- Offering appropriate training in behaviour management, and the impact of special educational needs and disabilities (SEND) and mental health needs on behaviour, to any staff who require it, so they can fulfil their duties set out in this policy
- Ensuring this policy works alongside the safeguarding policy to offer pupils both sanctions and support when necessary

- › Ensuring that the data from the behaviour log is reviewed regularly, to make sure that no groups of pupils are being disproportionately impacted by this policy.

Teachers and staff

Staff are responsible for:

- › Creating a calm and safe environment for pupils
- › Establishing and maintaining clear boundaries of acceptable pupil behaviour
- › Implementing the behaviour policy consistently
- › Communicating the school's expectations, routines, values and standards through teaching behaviour and in every interaction with pupils
- › Modelling expected behaviour and positive relationships
- › Providing a personalised approach to the specific behavioural needs of particular pupils
- › Considering the impact of their own behaviour on the school culture and how they can uphold school rules and expectations
- › Recording behaviour incidents promptly (CPOMS)
- › Challenging pupils to meet the school's expectations

The senior leadership team (SLT) will support staff in responding to behaviour incidents.

Parents and carers

Parents and carers, where possible, should:

- › Get to know the school's behaviour policy and reinforce it at home where appropriate
- › Support their child in adhering to the school's behaviour policy
- › Inform the school of any changes in circumstances that may affect their child's behaviour
- › Discuss any behavioural concerns with the class teacher promptly
- › Take part in any pastoral work following misbehaviour (for example, attending reviews of specific behaviour interventions)
- › Raise any concerns about the management of behaviour with the school directly, while continuing to work in partnership with the school
- › Take part in the life of the school and its culture

The school will endeavour to build a positive relationship with parents and carers by keeping them informed about developments in their child's behaviour and the school's policy, and working in collaboration with them to tackle behavioural issues.

Pupils

Pupils will be made aware of the following during their induction into the behaviour culture:

- › The expected standard of behaviour they should be displaying at school
- › That they have a duty to follow the behaviour policy
- › The school's key rules and routines
- › The rewards they can earn for meeting the behaviour standards, and the consequences they will face if they don't meet the standards
- › The pastoral support that is available to them to help them meet the behaviour standards

Pupils will be supported to meet the behaviour standards and will be provided with repeated induction sessions wherever appropriate.

Pupils will be supported to develop an understanding of the school's behaviour policy and wider culture.

Pupils will be asked to give feedback on their experience of the behaviour culture to support the evaluation, improvement and implementation of the behaviour policy.

Extra support and induction will be provided for pupils who are mid-phase arrivals.

School behaviour curriculum

Pupils are expected to follow our good behaviour rules:

- We try our best
- We are kind
- We are good listeners

School values

Our school values are prevalent throughout school these are:

- Tolerance (acceptance)
- Koinonia
- Forgiveness
- Respect
- Compassion
- Justice
- Humility
- Thankfulness

British values

British values are also prevalent throughout school these are:

- Tolerance
- Liberty
- Democracy
- Rule of Law
- Respect

Where appropriate and reasonable, adjustments may be made to routines within the curriculum to ensure all pupils can meet behavioural expectations in the curriculum.

Mobile phones are expected to be handed in to the school office at the start of the day and can be collected at the end of the day.

Classroom management

Teaching and support staff are responsible for setting the tone and context for positive behaviour within the school.

They will:

- Create and maintain a stimulating environment that encourages pupils to be engaged
- Display the good behaviour rules
- Develop a positive relationship with pupils, which may include:
 - Greeting pupils in the morning/at the start of lessons
 - Establishing clear routines
 - Communicating expectations of behaviour in ways other than verbally
 - Highlighting and promoting good behaviour
 - Concluding the day positively and starting the next day afresh
 - Having a plan for dealing with low-level disruption
 - Using positive reinforcement

Safeguarding

The school recognises that changes in behaviour may be an indicator that a pupil is in need of help or protection.

We will consider whether a pupil's misbehaviour may be linked to them suffering, or being likely to suffer, significant harm.

Where this may be the case, we will follow our child protection and safeguarding policy, and consider whether pastoral support, an early help intervention or a referral to children's social care is appropriate.

Please refer to our child protection and safeguarding policy for more information.

Responding to good behaviour

When a pupil's behaviour meets or goes above and beyond the expected behaviour standard, staff will recognise it with positive recognition and reward. This provides an opportunity for all staff to reinforce the school's culture and ethos.

Positive reinforcements and rewards will be applied clearly and fairly to reinforce the routines, expectations and norms of the school's behaviour culture.

Positive behaviour will be rewarded with:

- Verbal praise
- Certificates
- Good work assemblies
- Whole-class rewards, such as a popular activity

Responding to misbehaviour

When a pupil's behaviour falls below the standard that can reasonably be expected of them, staff will respond in order to restore a calm and safe learning environment, and to prevent recurrence of misbehaviour.

Staff will endeavour to create a predictable environment by always challenging behaviour that falls short of the standards, and by responding in a consistent, fair and proportionate manner, so pupils know with certainty that misbehaviour will always be addressed.

Classroom strategies

1. Given a clear choice about their behaviour
2. Given a final chance
3. Moved to another seat/part of yard
4. Moved to another class (for a given time)

Further action may be taken as follows:

- Some incidents may result in the child missing one or more playtimes.
- All incidents that are racist in nature will be recorded and passed to the headteacher/deputy head who will record it on RHIMS according to Sheffield CYPD policy.
- When a child has been injured as a result of a child's inappropriate behaviour, the child will be sent to the headteacher/deputy. The parent/carer will be notified of the incident.
- Incidents that have not been witnessed in full by an adult will be thoroughly investigated so that all pupils involved are heard and agree on the sequence of events. This will be conducted through the restorative practice structure.
- We operate a zero-tolerance policy to fighting, including playfighting and aggressive behaviour. Any incidence of fighting will result in the child missing recreational time. This is to give children time to reflect on their actions. In the event of repeated or serious incidents, parents will be contacted and asked to come into school for a meeting.
- On very rare occasions, an extreme behavioral problem or incident may lead to a fixed, long-term or permanent exclusion.

Where a child is regularly having incidents of unacceptable behaviour recorded, indicating a change in their normal behaviour, then a Target Report Card will be issued.

Target Report Cards

- Report cards may be issued by the head or deputy, or the class teacher (after consultation with the head or deputy). Targets will be explained and agreed by the child.
- Parents will be informed orally or, if this is not possible, by 1st class post that a Target Report card has been issued and given the opportunity to arrange an appointment to discuss the target report card with the head.
- Children on a Target Report card will be listed in the staff room. This is to enable all staff to offer support for the child on report.
- Every break time and lunchtime children must hand in their Target Report Card to duty staff at the start of break times for completion at the end of the break time.
- A child who fails to hand in his/her card at break time will have this recorded on the card.
- Parents/carers will be expected to sign the Target Report Card each evening

Target Report Cards will be used to monitor behaviour over a two-week period. This is the opportunity for the children to improve their behaviour. Where there is no change/improvement in behaviour at the end of the two weeks, the situation will be reviewed and a Pastoral Support Plan (PSP) may be issued.

Pastoral Support Plan

A Pastoral Support Plan is a 16 week school based intervention to help individual pupils manage their own behaviour. It is for pupils who are having difficulty following the school Behaviour Policy and for pupils who are at serious risk of a fixed, long-term or permanent exclusion.

Restorative Practices

Restorative Practice aims to manage conflict and tensions in the school community by repairing harm and building relationships; above assigning blame and punishment. It shifts the emphasis from managing behaviour to focusing on building, nurturing and repairing relationships.

- Allow the act (unaccepted behaviour) to be rejected, and focuses on the worth of the person and their potential contribution to society.
- Rejects the 'Act not the Actor'. Separates the 'Deed from the Doer'

As part of the Restorative Practice process, children and staff discuss the incident and focus their discussion around five questions. The questions aim to find out what has happened to cause the incident and to support the child to reflect on their actions and how their actions can affect others.

Restorative Practice questions

1. What happened?
2. What were you thinking about at the time?
3. What have your thoughts been since?
4. Who else has been affected by what you did?
5. What do you think needs to happen to make things right?

Zones of regulation

This is a whole school system that children can use to help self-regulate their feelings, emotions and sensory needs. Different emotions are coloured coded into red, green, blue and yellow zones, each with their own tool kit of strategies to regulate these emotions. The Zones of Regulation provide a common language and compassionate framework to support positive mental health and skill development throughout the whole school.

Trauma Informed Practice

We are committed to ensuring that our school develops and implements a Trauma and Mental Health Informed Approach to education to ensure that all of our pupils develop and sustain positive mental health and resilience to engage fully in life and learning in school and out in the wider community. It is our aim to create an environment of safety and comfort that has strong, positive and supportive relationships at its heart.

Our priority is to ensure psychological and environmental safety first, as this is the foundation that everything else depends on. Through a trauma informed approach, our focus is not only on the physical environment but the relational environment. It requires emotionally available adults (EEAs) who can provide essential calming and containing of our pupils, their parents/carers, other agencies and each other when they are overwhelmed by an event, a situation or their feelings.

It is essential that our response to distress and challenging behaviour is supportive and focusses on how best to support the person to relate to the world and each other in a healthier and more productive way, rather than employing punitive sanctions that are detrimental to the child's future development and learning of self. To best support our pupils, we need to acknowledge that behaviour is a form of communication and is, as a result, of an unmet need, adverse childhood experience (ACEs) or their neurocognitive or neurochemical profile.

Reasonable force

Reasonable force covers a range of interventions that involve physical contact with pupils. All members of staff have a duty to use reasonable force, in the following circumstances, to prevent a pupil from:

- Causing disorder
- Hurting themselves or others
- Damaging property
- Committing an offence

Incidents of reasonable force must:

- Always be used as a last resort
- Be applied using the minimum amount of force and for the minimum amount of time possible
- Be used in a way that maintains the safety and dignity of all concerned
- Never be used as a form of punishment
- Be recorded and reported to parents/carers When considering using reasonable force, staff should, in considering the risks, carefully recognise any specific vulnerabilities of the pupil, including SEND, mental health needs or medical conditions.

Confiscation and searching

Searching and confiscation is conducted in line with the DfE's latest guidance on searching, screening and confiscation.

Confiscation

Any prohibited items found in a pupil's possession as a result of a search will be confiscated. These items will not be returned to the pupil.

We will also confiscate any item that is harmful or detrimental to school discipline. These items will be returned to pupils after discussion with senior leaders and parents/carers, if appropriate.

Off-site misbehaviour

Sanctions may be applied where a pupil has misbehaved off-site when representing the school. This means misbehaviour when the pupil is:

- Taking part in any school-organised or school-related activity (e.g. school trips)

- Travelling to or from school
- Wearing school uniform
- In any other way identifiable as a pupil of our school

Sanctions may also be applied where a pupil has misbehaved off-site, at any time, whether or not the conditions above apply, if the misbehaviour:

- Could have repercussions for the orderly running of the school
- Poses a threat to another pupil
- Could adversely affect the reputation of the school

Sanctions will only be given out on school premises or elsewhere when the pupil is under the lawful control of a staff member (e.g. on a school-organised trip).

Online misbehaviour

The school can issue behaviour sanctions to pupils for online misbehaviour when:

- It poses a threat or causes harm to another pupil
- It could have repercussions for the orderly running of the school
- It adversely affects the reputation of the school
- The pupil is identifiable as a member of the school

Sanctions will only be given out on school premises or elsewhere when the pupil is under the lawful control of a staff member.

Zero-tolerance approach to sexual harassment and sexual violence

The school will ensure that all incidents of sexual harassment and/or violence are met with a suitable response, and never ignored.

Pupils are encouraged to report anything that makes them uncomfortable, no matter how 'small' they feel it might be.

The school's response will be:

- Proportionate
- Considered
- Supportive
- Decided on a case-by-case basis

The school has procedures in place to respond to any allegations or concerns regarding a child's safety or wellbeing. These include clear processes for:

- Responding to a report
- Carrying out risk assessments, where appropriate, to help determine whether to:
 - Manage the incident internally
 - Refer to early help
 - Refer to children's social care

- Report to the police

Please refer to our child protection and safeguarding policy for more information.

Malicious allegations

Where a pupil makes an allegation against a member of staff and that allegation is shown to have been deliberately invented or malicious, the school will consider whether to discipline the pupil in accordance with this policy.

Where a pupil makes an allegation of sexual violence or sexual harassment against another pupil and that allegation is shown to have been deliberately invented or malicious, the school will consider whether to discipline the pupil in accordance with this policy.

In all cases where an allegation is determined to be unsubstantiated, unfounded, false or malicious, the school (in collaboration with the local authority designated officer (LADO), where relevant) will consider whether the pupil who made the allegation is in need of help, or the allegation may have been a cry for help. If so, a referral to children's social care may be appropriate.

The school will also consider the pastoral needs of staff and pupils accused of misconduct.

Please refer to our child protection and safeguarding for more information on responding to allegations of abuse against staff or other pupils.

Recognising the impact of SEND on behaviour

The school recognises that pupils' behaviour may be impacted by a special educational need or disability (SEND).

When incidents of misbehaviour arise, we will consider them in relation to a pupil's SEND, although we recognise that not every incident of misbehaviour will be connected to their SEND. Decisions on whether a pupil's SEND had an impact on an incident of misbehaviour will be made on a case-by-case basis.

When dealing with misbehaviour from pupils with SEND, especially where their SEND affects their behaviour, the school will balance their legal duties when making decisions about enforcing the behaviour policy. The legal duties include:

- Taking reasonable steps to avoid any substantial disadvantage to a disabled pupil being caused by the school's policies or practices (Equality Act 2010)
- Using our best endeavours to meet the needs of pupils with SEND (Children and Families Act 2014)
- If a pupil has an education, health and care (EHC) plan, the provisions set out in that plan must be secured and the school must co-operate with the local authority and other bodies

As part of meeting these duties, the school will anticipate, as far as possible, all likely triggers of misbehaviour, and put in place support to prevent these from occurring.

Any preventative measures will take into account the specific circumstances and requirements of the pupil concerned.

- Short, planned movement breaks for a pupil with SEND who finds it difficult to sit still for long

- Adjusting seating plans to allow a pupil with visual or hearing impairment to sit in sight of the teacher
- Training for staff in understanding conditions such as autism
- Use of sensory room where pupils can regulate their emotions during a moment of sensory overload

Adapting sanctions for pupils with SEND

When considering a behavioural sanction for a pupil with SEND, the school will take into account:

- Was the pupil unable to understand the rule or instruction?
- Was the pupil unable to act differently at the time as a result of their SEND?
- Is the pupil likely to behave aggressively due to their particular SEND?

If the answer to any of these questions is 'yes', the school will then assess if it is appropriate to use a sanction and if so, whether any reasonable adjustments need to be made to the sanction.

Considering whether a pupil displaying challenging behaviour may have unidentified SEND

The school's special educational needs co-ordinator (SENCO) may evaluate a pupil who exhibits challenging behaviour to determine whether they have any underlying needs that are not currently being met.

Where necessary, support and advice will also be sought from specialist teachers, an educational psychologist, medical practitioners and/or others, to identify or support specific needs.

When acute needs are identified in a pupil, we will liaise with external agencies and plan support programmes for that child. We will work with parents/carers to create the plan and review it on a regular basis.

Pupils with an education, health and care (EHC) plan

The provisions set out in the EHC plan must be secured and the school will co-operate with the local authority and other bodies.

If the school has a concern about the behaviour of a pupil with an EHC plan, it will make contact with the local authority to discuss the matter. If appropriate, the school may request an emergency review of the EHC plan.

Supporting pupils following a sanction

Following a sanction, the school will consider strategies to help the pupil to understand how to improve their behaviour and meet the expectations of the school.

- Reintegration meetings
- Daily contact with the pastoral lead
- A report card with personalised behaviour goals

Training

As part of their induction process, our staff are provided with regular training on managing behaviour, including training on:

- The needs of the pupils at the school
- How SEND and mental health needs can impact behaviour

Behaviour management will also form part of continuing professional development.
